FALL 2023 MEETING PRESENTERS

Dr. Steven M. Fortier is the Director of the National Minerals Information Center, at the U.S. Geological Survey. He also recently served as a Senior Policy Advisor in the Office of Science and Technology Policy at the White House. Steve came to the USGS after eighteen years in the private sector in industrial minerals mining and processing. He holds PhD and Master's degrees in geological sciences from Brown University, and a B.A. in geology and chemistry from the University of Maine – Farmington.

Steven Fortier

Director of the National Minerals Information Center
US Geological Survey

Marcus is the head of Commodities Strategy at Macquarie, having previously led the Metals & Bulk Commodities Strategy team. He is responsible for analysing cross-commodity macroeconomic themes and trading dynamics, whilst also leading coverage of overall commodities demand, with a growing focus on energy transition drivers. Since starting in commodities research at Credit Suisse, he has gained extensive experience across precious and base metals as well as bulk commodities, having been a principal analyst for each of the sectors at different points in his career. Marcus holds an MPhil in Modern Chinese Studies from the University of Oxford and a BA in Economics from the University of Durham.

Marcus Garvey

Head of Commodity Strategy, Commodities & Global Markets
Macquarie

Eleni Joannides
Director Analyst - Copper
Wood Mackenzie

Based in London, Eleni joined Wood Mackenzie in early 2012 to manage the Copper Market Service. She has over 25 years experience in the metals and mining sector, working both as an analyst and for a producer across base and precious metals. Prior to joining Wood Mackenzie, Eleni worked at CRU, initially in the aluminium team where she was responsible for CRU's work on aluminium extrusions. In 2005, Eleni joined the copper team and contributed to CRU's analysis of the copper and copper concentrates markets and was promoted to the position of Research Manager in mid-2008.

Eleni's previous experience was in industry working for Zambia Consolidated Copper Mines (ZCCM), in their Sales and Marketing Team.

Eleni holds a Bachelors degree in Economics from Kingston University and a post-graduate diploma in Business Studies from LSE.

Alex King
Executive Director
Panama City Port
Authority

Alex serves as the Executive Director of the Panama City Port Authority. In his current role, he supports a dynamic team that oversees every aspect of port operations and long-term strategic planning. Alex also leads industrial and business development efforts to attract new cargo commodities and services through the port. After graduating from Auburn University in 2001, he began his career with Rail Management Corp in Panama City, FL. His career progressed from operations management responsibilities to the regional director role for the gulf region of a large, short line holding company. Alex transitioned from the rail industry to the seaport industry in 2011. He has 22 years of experience in the transportation industry and has served 12 years with the Panama City Port Authority. Alex serves as Chair of the Florida Seaport Transportation and Economic Development Council, a public entity created by statute to execute the state of Florida's economic development mission through implementation of seaport capital improvement projects at the local level. He also serves as Second Vice-President for the Gulf Ports Association, an organization committed to promoting waterborne trade through US Gulf ports. Alex and his wife, Laura, reside in Lynn Haven, Florida with their two daughters. They all enjoy boating, fishing, challenging rounds of golf, and cheering on their respective SEC football teams, Auburn and Alabama.
